

To Kill a Mockingbird

Vocabulary

Vocab Cards

Back

Definition:

Synonym/Antonym:

Original Sentence:

Visual Example:

Front

vocabulary word

Part of Speech

Vocab Cards Example

Back

Definition: puzzled; confused

Synonym/Antonym: bewildered, enlightened

Original Sentence: He looked perplexed by the questions on the test.

Visual Example:

Front

Perplexed

Adj. (adjective)

Chapter 1

1. assuage: to soothe, to ease
2. apothecary: pharmacist, druggist
3. taciturn: reluctant to speak
4. quaint: old-fashioned
5. flivver: a junky old car
6. malevolent: having bad intentions
7. profound: of deep meaning

Chapters 2-5

1. fractious: disorderly, divided, uncontrolled
2. diminutive: small
3. auspicious: fortunate, favorable, promising success
4. tacit: unspoken, but understood
5. benevolent: having good intentions (Latin roots: bene-well, vol-wishes)
6. irk: to annoy

Chapters 6-11 Vocabulary

1. malignant: wanting to do evil, likely to cause harm
2. perpetual: never-ending
3. unfathomable: unknowable; not understandable
4. perplexity: confusion
5. induce: to persuade or arouse, to bring about
6. analogous: comparable to; alike in some ways
7. articulate: speaking clearly

Chapters 12-17 Vocabulary

1. altercation: a heated argument
2. frivolous: foolish, silly
3. austere: strict, stern
4. elusive: hard to catch
5. placid: calm, peaceful
6. venerable: worthy of respect
7. indigenous: native to, originally present in a region
8. tedious: long and boring

Chapters 18-22 Vocabulary

1. ruefully: sadly
2. caliber: quality
3. impudent: rude, contradictory
4. effect: (v.) to cause
5. volition: one's own will

Chapters 23-31 Vocabulary

1. vehement: strongly and passionately believing/speaking
2. brevity: briefness
3. remorse: sorrow
4. poise: confidence
5. notoriety: fame; bad reputation
6. staccato: repeated, short, rapid, distinct sounds
7. acquiescence: willingness to give in